

Margaret “Meg” Dippel Voelter, OStJ, has been a member of the Order of St John since 2016 and serves on the Austin – San Antonio Regional Council as Membership Co-Chair. She graduated from the University of Texas at Austin with a Bachelor of Business Administration in Finance. She then earned a Juris Doctor degree from Baylor Law School. She taught as an adjunct professor at Baylor Law School and practiced law at Cantey, Hanger, Roan and Autrey in Austin, Texas. She is a member of the State Bar of Texas and the National Association of Corporate Directors (Governance Fellow 2020-2021). She currently serves on the Board of Directors of the Lower Colorado River Authority and is an Advisory Director of Brenham Bancshares, Inc. and Brenham National Bank.

Meg is committed to community service and has served as Vice President of Student Activities, Vice President of Provisionals, President Elect and President of the National Charity League, Inc., Hills of Austin Chapter, a mother daughter volunteer organization that serves the community and provides leadership training. She is a member of the UTEACH Advisory Council, a STEM teacher preparation program at The University of Texas at Austin. She is also a member of the Dell Children’s Women’s Trust, a group of women sharing an interest in children’s health providing leadership through philanthropic support. She has also served as President of the Pi Beta Phi Austin Alumni Club and is a member of the National Society of The Colonial Dames of America.

In 2012 she was elected to serve on the Regents School of Austin Board of Directors. She served four years on the Board including three years as Secretary. Regents School of Austin is a K-12 classical Christian Institution with an enrollment of approximately 1,000 students. Meg lives in Austin, Texas with her husband Dathan Voelter, OStJ. They have three children.